

St. Michael's Adult Formation – “Fair and Affordable Housing” -- Resource List

Agencies:

Fair Housing Project, Legal Aid of North Carolina,
<https://www.legalaidnc.org/> and <https://www.fairhousingnc.org/>

Jack Holtzman, Co-Project Director, jack@ncjustice.org , 919-856-2165

And specifically, for those who wish to learn more about becoming a fair housing tester, please contact Jennifer Lozano, Fair Housing Testing Coordinator, info@fairhousingnc.org*

Wake County Department of Housing Affordability & Community Revitalization
<https://www.wakegov.com/waverly-f-akins-wake-county-office-building>

Lorena D. McDowell, Director, housing.info@wakegov.com , 919-856-5689

Community input is valued, if you wish to learn about opportunities, please email Lorena*

Raleigh/Wake Partnership to End Homelessness, <https://partnershipwake.org>

NC Housing Coalition, <https://nchousing.org/housing-data>

National Low Income Housing Coalition, <https://www.nlihc.org>

Books:

- The Color of Law: The Forgotten History of How Our Government Segregated America by Richard Rothstein
- Evicted: Poverty and Profit in the American City by Matthew Desmond

Film: <https://youtu.be/O5FBJyqfoLM> (a six-minute video highlighting historical injustices in housing and the intersection with other systems)

Articles / Reports / Episcopal Church:

<https://www.jchs.harvard.edu/blog/new-report-shows-surg-ing-rental-market-starkly-divided-race-and-renter-incomes> blog-01-21-2022

<https://www.jchs.harvard.edu/americas-rental-housing-2022>

<https://www.jchs.harvard.edu/state-nations-housing-2021>

<https://www.episdionc.org/affordable-housing>

<https://www.episcopalchurch.org/ministries/social-justice-advocacy-engagement/>